

Propoganda has no place on the broadcast airwaves. Even if the Bush folks are paying for this time, it is not the right venue or forum and certainly speaks to the undue influence that Sinclair and David Smith will have over the administration should they be re-elected.